Latest News!

We had a fabulous week celebrating all things reading, culminating in our annual World Book Day celebrations. The children particularly enjoyed the workshops with author and illustrator, Dorien Brouwers.

Dorien commented on how wonderful the school was and thanked all the children and staff for making the day so much fun!

Fundraising

Isla and Elise from Swifts and Skylarks went over and above raising money for the Peterborough foodbank.

They raised an incredible £73. A fantastic achievement by both of them. They were truly embodying our school value of 'community'.

Books Books Books

The school book fair will be running again this week from Tuesday – Friday. It is a great opportunity for the children to purchase new books. The school also benefits from any sales and the money made goes into purchasing new books for classes.
