

Latest News!

Children have returned remarkably well and our assessments show that many are progressing as we would expect them to in key areas.

Teachers, however, have had to totally re-think how they plan and deliver lessons, which is proving exhausting.

It's a credit to everyone (children, staff and parents) that the feeling in school is so positive and reflected in the outstanding attendance figures below!

Social Distancing

We all know from media reports that the COVID situation is escalating again and we need to be cautious.

You may see staff wearing masks at the gate, to model good practice, as well as posters reminding everyone to maintain social distance. Please keep children by your side when waiting and restrict the number of people collecting where possible.

Reminders:

- School meals, delivered in the classroom, are proving very popular. Check what's on offer at www.nenevalleyprimary.net/parents/lunches. It's a set menu now, but everyone knows what they're getting.
