Busy week ahead!

There are a quite a few events happening in school over the final week of term. Year 5&6 will be performing their end of year show 3 times over the next 48 hours. Nene Valley took part in the trust charity day today, raising money for MacMillan. Reports and move up day will take place on Thursday 13th July and parents will have an opportunity to say hello to their child's new teacher on Monday 17th. We also have our year 6 leavers assembly.

Please speak with a member of staff if you have any questions.
