Latest News!

Our Monday assemblies this half term will be focused on our community and celebrating the wonderful diversity we have at Nene Valley. These assembly themes will then be the focus of learning for that week. We encourage you to have discussions with the children at home about what they have learned:

- 6th November – Community
- 13th November - Identity
- 20th November Diversity
- 27th November - Inclusion and Belonging
- 4th December - Respecting and Tolerating Difference
- 11th December - Empathy and Understanding

Friends of Nene Valley

Thank you to those parents who have expressed an interest in becoming part of FONV. Please come along to the AGM on Wednesday 8th at 6pm if you wish to find out more information. The AGM is held in the community room, where the children attend breakfast club.

FONV is a great organisation, raising money for the school whilst putting on fun events for the children.

Twitter:

Nene Valley will be using 'Twitter' as an additional form of communication through one central account –

@NeneValleyPS

Please delete any other accounts, as they will be made inactive over the coming weeks.
