Nene Valley took part in not one, but two football tournaments on Friday. One group of children made the journey to Newmarket whilst the other headed to Northampton.

Both teams did exceptionally well beating some strong opposition along the way. The Newmarket group managed to get to the semifinals and narrowly missed out on the final.

We would like to praise the children for positively representing the school.

Book fair

Thank you to all parents, carers and children for engaging so enthusiastically with our book fair.

It was great to see our children showing an excitement and love for books.

The school receives commission from each book sold and we invest that money into purchasing new books for the school.

Busy final week:

We have a busy final week at school next week. Please make sure you have your tickets for the school production and the Easter disco.

Please see the ladies in the office if you have not yet purchased your tickets.
