Parent Consultations

We are so pleased with how the virtual parent consultations worked out (for the vast majority). There were the occasional blips, (e.g. voices without videos, or 'missing links'), but on the whole they worked well given current difficulties. Well done to teachers for learning something new on top of everything else that is being asked of them right now.

Reminders:

- Book Christmas lunch for your child a.s.a.p., so that we can be well prepared. You will need to book, even if your child has free school meals
- Some Y5/6, who walk to school alone, are arriving late for their bubble. Please remind them to arrive on time.
