Reflecting on the year

Another year with changes and challenges, together the Nene Valley Community has shown how strong it can be supporting each other, overcoming barriers and being positive. We have all adopted new habits and the old way of doing things seems long forgotten. As we move back (hopefully permanently) to a more community feel, we look forward to keeping some of those positive changes; wearing PE kits all day, eating in class groups and some ongoing use of video conferencing. Have a great summer.
