11th January 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

yesterday saw the inaugural Tuck Shop Committee meeting between our School Caterer Mrs Donnor, Mrs Bottomley the Office Manager and three Year 5/6 pupils, Amelia, Elizabeth and Reuben.

They looked at the items currently on sale in the tuck shop and discussed their viability, not only from a cost point of view but also from the environmental impact of some items. Some snacks were disregarded due to price, but others due to their carbon footprint and the amount of packaging. Mrs Donnor also outlined the Government guidelines on healthy eating.

The Committee therefore concluded that from Monday 17th January the following items will be available at morning break for children in Key Stage 2 at a cost of 30p each:

- Bags of Dried Fruit/Seeds
- Homemade Popcorn
- Fresh Fruit
- Rice Cakes
- Gingerbread Men
- Bread Sticks
- Homemade Apple/Banana Muffins

Can we please request that your child only has one tuck shop item per day and a list of allergens will be available upon request.

Kind regards

Mr N File
