Dear Parents/Carers

As you may already know, last Tuesday some of the children helped to rescue a hedgehog which had become stuck in a drain on the school playground. It was initially looked after by Pengally & Mizen Vets who then handed it over to the charity 'The Peterborough Hedgehog Hotel' for recuperation.

As one of our school values is Community we thought it would be an exciting idea to raise funds for this local charity.

Our Fundraising team, using excellent communication and decision making skills, decided upon a fundraising activity to involve the whole school; which is to fill the outline of a giant hedgehog with coins. Therefore we are asking that on Tuesday 1st February, pupils bring in a handful of loose change for us to fill the hedgehog,

Thank you for your continuous support.

Mrs Laud
