Latest News!

In the last week of term we had birds, bikes and brilliant children:

Year 1 and 2 had a visit from several birds of prey. These birds swooped around the hall over the heads of the children.

Our youngest children were seen gliding across the playground on bikes and learned some technical language along the way.

Mr Shang, Mrs Pearson and myself saw a bounty of Golden Stickers for excellent work.

Looking forward

World Book Day and Mrs Stainsby has constructed a packed week. \(Link to letter for a reminder\)

Year 3 and 4 will be starting their production and just before Easter we expect them to perform their production to a live audience!

More activity and impact from the young leaders in the school.

Reminders:

If someone else is collecting your child from school, could you please contact the school office before 3.00pm, as we cannot guarantee the message will get through after that.
