What a wonderful week of world book day events;

There have already been many entries for the design a woodland creature. The Art Leaders will judge these on Thursday as their first key leadership activity.

All the doors in the school have been decorated with a book cover – do you know what your child's is?

And today books have been hidden (and found) around school for children to borrow and take home with some hot chocolate.

Costumes for Thursday

On Thursday we are all coming dressed as a word. One member of staff is working on a costume with some pens and a sieve! Don't spend long worrying about what this could be!

Costumes can be as fancy or simple as you like. The clever bit is the word – if your child needs any help they can ask their class teacher.

Reminders:

- Children who are sick or have diarrhea should be off school for 48 hours from the last event to avoid passing on bugs.
- We wish the POSH good luck on Tuesday. If you are watching school still starts at 8:45!
