Another successful trip to Stibbington, this time Swallows enjoyed various activities and spent two nights sleeping away from parents – a brilliant learning experience and thanks to all staff, some of whom it was their second visit in a fortnight! Skylarks will complete our visits next week. See some photos:

It is not just about a test!

Year 6 SATs start today, the children have worked so hard and we will be proud with their achievements. SATs are not the only measure of a child's success in primary school; teachers assess them professionally with regard to their academic ability as well. Primary school is also important to develop maturity, the ability to care and work with others and become aware citizens.
